ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF
WESTERN DREDGING ASSOCIATION

I hereby associate to form a Nonstock Corporation under the provisions of Chapter 2, Title 13.1 of the 1950 Code of Virginia, as amended, and to that end set forth the following:

(a) The name of this corporation shall be WESTERN DREDGING ASSOCIATION.

(b) The purposes for which this corporation is formed are:

(1) To compile, present and publish technical papers for the advancement of dredging technology, including the design and construction of dredges and the techniques and systems used in dredging operations.

(2) The general purposes and powers are:
To participate in the World Dredging Conference through which will be offered to its members the opportunity to compile and present technical papers, and also provide a forum for communication among dredging and allied industry representatives.

To encourage harmony and cooperation among its members, and to promote a friendly and enlarged intercourse among technical societies and other organizations and associations interested in dredging operations.

To carry on educational work by collecting and disseminating among its members useful data and information relating to dredging operations.

To make people aware of the importance of dredging and its objectives and the basic fundamentals involved in this essential construction activity.
To improve the professional stature of the dredging industry throughout the world.

To emphasize the importance of understanding and the development of solutions for programs related to the protection and enhancement of the marine environment.

To recognize outstanding engineering and operational achievements by individuals and organizations.

To encourage colleges and universities to initiate courses and programs to prepare students for employment in the dredging, navigation and marine construction fields.

To disseminate information on legislative matters which relate to or impact on dredging, navigation and marine construction activities.

To afford means of cooperating and complying with the rules and regulations issued by the Local, State, Federal and International agencies, and with any other organizations or bodies with whom this corporation may have a community of interest.

To conduct activities with others as a partner, joint venturer, or in any other legal capacity authorized by law, in any transaction permitted under the law applicable to nonprofit corporations.

To employ all the necessary means and agencies to carry out the foregoing purposes, including the power to borrow or raise money for said purposes.

To buy, lease, rent or otherwise acquire, hold or use, rent, mortgage or hypothecate, exchange, sell or otherwise dispose of, real and personal property of any kind and character.

To borrow or raise money and to solicit, receive and accept for the purposes of the corporation, donations, gifts, devises and bequests of money and property of any kind.

To enter into, make, perform and carry out contracts and engagements of every nature and kind with any person, firm, corporation or association calculated to carry out the objects and purposes of this corporation.
To do all and everything necessary, suitable and proper for the accomplishment of any of the purposes or the attainment of any of the objects or the furtherance of any of the powers hereinbefore set forth, either alone or in association with other corporations, firms or individuals, and to do every other act or acts, thing or things incidental or appurtenant to or growing out of or connected with the aforesaid activities or powers or any part or parts thereof, provided the same be not inconsistent with the Virginia Nonstock Corporation Act under which this corporation is organized; provided, however, that nothing herein shall be construed to authorize the corporation to engage in any act or acts to any substantial degree that are not in furtherance of the specific and primary purposes of this corporation hereinbefore recited.

To conduct and carry on the said activities or any part thereof, and to have one or more offices and to exercise any or all of its corporate powers and rights as a Virginia Nonstock Corporation.

That anything to the contrary notwithstanding, this corporation does not contemplate pecuniary gain or profit to the members thereof, or financial benefit, directly or indirectly to any of its individual members, and that the funds of the corporation, whether received by gift or otherwise, and regardless of the source thereof, shall be used exclusively for the purposes for which the corporation is organized as the Board of Directors, from time to time, may determine.

(c) The authorized number and qualifications of members, the different classes of membership, if any, the property, voting and other rights and privileges of members and their liability to dues and assessments and the method of collection thereof, shall be set forth in the Bylaws.

(d) This corporation is one which does not contemplate pecuniary gain or profit to the members thereof, and it is orga-recognized solely for nonprofit purposes and upon dissolution of the corporation any assets remaining after payment of all debts and obligations shall be transferred or conveyed to one or more domestic or foreign corporations, societies or organizations engaged in activities substantially similar to those of this corporation.

(e) The address of the corporation's initial registered office is 4031 University Drive, Suite 202, Fairfax, Virginia and the name of the city in which it is located is Fairfax City and the name of the corporation's initial registered agent at that address is James B. Pittleman who is a resident of Virginia and a member of the Virginia Bar.

(f) That the names and addresses of the persons constituting the initial board of directors are as follows:
